Leading Mayoral Candidates Face Hill Quiz at Forum

The Potrero Hill Neighborhood House became the center of citizen politics last July 17, as four mayoralty candidates vied for favor among the people of the Hill at a forum sponsored by the Neighborhood House.

The forum began with five minute opening remarks from candidates Judge John Ertola, Supervisor Dianne Feinstein and State Senators Milton Marks and George Moscone. A period of questions and answers followed their statements. Esther Marks of the League of Women Voters was the official timekeeper, and Board of Directors President Bernie Gershater chaired the event.

Questions posed by members of the audience centered on: Homeowners reassessment; the Dogpatch area of the Hill; Revenue Sharing; and what could the candidates offer Potrero Hill?

All the candidates stood against taxing homeowners in order to finance city projects. Feinstein stated that residential property should be assessed at a different rate than business property. Moscone's comments included "if we rely on property taxes to support the inner city, there may not be a future for San Francisco."

Senator Marks felt that there should be more, not less Revenue

Sharing money for the neighborhoods. Moscone summed up his feelings in a simple but straightforward "It's a shuck and a jive." Ertola said that the concept was good, but pitting one group against another for the monies was not. Feinstein assured that the money promised will be there when the citizens want to use it.

The residency issue brought from Feinstein the statistic that 60% of city employees live outside the city and emphasized that city jobs should go to city people. Marks stressed that it should be made economically feasible for people to live in the city.

Assessment Protest Action

The Citizens Action League (CAL) will be discussing the recent assessments and skyrocketing of rents in San Francisco on August 7, at Nourse Auditorium, 7 p.m. The League is developing a program which will encompass renters, homeowners and small property owners alike. It proposes several alternatives to the present tax setup:

1. Raise downtown assessments. Let the high rises, the banks and the fancy hotels pay more.
2. Increase other sources of city revenue. For example, increase real estate transfer taxes; initiate a tax on the sale and transfer of stocks, increase business taxes on large businesses.
3. Maintain city services. Cutting back on city services does not solve the problem. Putting the blame on city employees isn't the answer to rising costs in the neighborhoods.
4. Change unfair tax laws. Initiate tax reform at the State and Federal levels.

For more information on the proposed plan call CAL, 543-5630, 593 Market St., S.F.

Voter Registration

The Coalition To Register 100,000 New Voters, a group committed to expanding the electorate in the City, is conducting a voter registration drive and will pay deputy registrars 35¢ for each valid registration received.

Any Hill resident who would like to be a deputy registrar of voters should attend one of the classes at the Neighborhood House on one of the following dates:

Tues., Aug. 5, 10 AM

Wed. Aug. 6, 3 PM

Thurs., Aug. 7, 7:30 PM

Contact Valerie Marhefka at 826-8080 for more information.

School Budget Cuts - Union Calls For Demonstration

The United Transportation Union of School Bus Drivers, Local 1741, has issued a protest aimed at the San Francisco Board of Education's proposed budget cuts, by calling for a demonstration of union members and others Tuesday, August 5, at 5:30 PM, 135 Van Ness Avenue.

The Union claims that the Board's new budget proposals will mean: new school hours staggered from 7:55 AM to 10:15 AM, with dismissals from 1:05 PM to 4:30 PM; more children waiting at street corners and crossing streets at rush hours; overloaded bus schedules making worse delays; no special buses for emotionally handicapped children, as was available last year; no special buses for emergencies, such as illness, as was available last year; no bus monitors; and some 5,000 more children forced to ride the Muni during commute hours.

"These budget proposals threaten the safety and welfare of all school children as well as inconvenience their parents," the Union spokesmen claim.

Also, say the backers of the demonstration, the proposed cutbacks will cause increased working hours for teachers and school custodians; a 50% decrease in supplies and reading materials; no school maintenance; and additional lay-offs, except for downtown administration.

For further information, call David Shortino or Seymour Kramer, 282-4518, 647-0813 or 282-9494.

VIEW's 5th Birthday - Party

THE POTRERO VIEW invites all Hill residents to its annual picnic and birthday celebration to be held Saturday, August 9, from 10 AM to 7 PM at McKinley Park, Vermont and 20th Streets.

This year's picnic is a special celebration. We are commemorating the VIEW's FIFTH birthday. Scheduled to perform are the following groups: The Pickle Family Circus, singers Lenny and Jenny, a pick-up jazz band, and we're trying to line up a bagpipe player. The VIEW looks forward to some spontaneous contributions that will make the entertainment of the day a success.

And, we haven't forgotten the kids. Mark Ammen, who runs the art classes at the Neighborhood House, is planning various children's activities which should include fingerpainting, glue-in, easel painting and lots more.

Bring yourself and your friends; bring enough food for your group and some to share with a neighbor. We hope this picnic will give us an opportunity to know each other better, make some new friends and bring our community closer together.

For information, call Ruth at 282-3156.

Editorial

Voter Registration

Only 22% of Potrero Hill residents are registered voters. That's a very bad percentage for any neighborhood of any major city.

At a time when important issues, property assessments, taxes, education and unemployment face us, we need to have citizens who will vote to improve the caliber of our representatives at election time.

The right to vote is a basic American right, yet in this time of our country's concentration on Bicentennial celebrations, there is a need to remind people of their duties and responsibilities as citizens in this government.

The VIEW urges all residents of Potrero Hill to register to vote. If you have moved since last November's election, you must re-register. If you failed to vote in the last election, you must re-register.

When in doubt, call the Registrar of Voters office in City Hall, or call the Coalition to Register 100,000 new voters (see story on Page 1).

Special Bus Run

To Ft. Cronkhite

The Municipal Railway offers bargain weekend bus service on Sunday between San Francisco and Fort Cronkhite beach, on the Marin headlands north of the Golden Gate.

The No. 32 Embarcadero bus departs every 90 minutes on weekends and holidays. The first bus leaves from the new Southern Pacific Depot, Fourth and Townsend Streets, at 9:30 AM and the last at 5 PM.

The bus will follow its regular local route along the waterfront to Van Ness Ave. and Chestnut St. and make stops later at Lombard and Fillmore Sts., several points in the Presidio and at the Golden Gate Bridge toll plaza before crossing to the Marin side.

The bus will start its first return trip from Fort Cronkhite at 11 AM and its final one at 6:30 PM.

The service will cost 25 cents each way and continue until October 26. The U.S. Department of Interior is underwriting the experimental service to encourage visits to portions of the Golden Gate National Recreation Area.

Dial-a-Test

Dial A Test, (415) 776-1291, a telephone hearing screening test is brought to the public by the Hearing Society of the Bay Area, and funded as a public service by the San Francisco Council of the Lions Club.

The test has proven to be a valuable health education tool and, although a hearing screening test on the telephone can never be an exact measurement of hearing acuity, a person with a significant loss would most likely fail to hear the prescribed number of test tones.

The test advises any person who fails to hear the tones to seek help from a medical ear specialist, family physician or to call the Bay Area Hearing Society at 775-3732 for further information about medical resources.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

I am the new children's librarian at the Potrero Branch. My job is only part-time (25 hours a week), but we will continue to offer story hour for your pre-schoolers every Wednesday at 2 p.m., and reading aloud for your children 6 and older every Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. Additional programming will be arranged as time permits.

I've already met some of Potrero's children, but there are a lot more whom I haven't seen, so bring in your children and let me introduce them to many, many really good books.

Summer Classes

The Exploratorium will conduct summer courses designed for children, teenagers and adults beginning August 5th.

Children's classes will include "From a Child's Point of View", dealing with sunbeams, lasers, sound and music. For both children and teenagers, classes in photography, visual exploration, drawing, ceramic sculpture and movement will be offered.

Adults can take advantage of a comprehensive course in light, which will include the perception of color and polarization.

For further information and a free brochure, contact the Exploratorium at 563-7337. The Exploratorium is located at 3601 Lyon Street in the Palace of Fine Arts.

Supervisor Advises

On Assessments

Supervisor John Barbagelata has volunteered the services of his neighborhood real estate office, at 314 West Portal Ave., to any taxpayer who feels his residential assessment is too high.

Barbagelata's office will compare the new property assessment with current residential sales prices, and advise the taxpayer whether he/she has a good basis for an appeal before the Assessment Appeals Board.

Those homeowners who feel their property has been assessed at more than market value have until September 15 to file a protest with the Appeals Board.

Barbagelata asks that people not call the office, but bring their documents in person.

Candidates' Forum

The Potrero Hill Neighborhood House will sponsor a Candidate's Forum, Wednesday, August 20, at 8 p.m.

Candidates running for the offices of Sheriff and District Attorney will be the featured guests.

The public is invited to attend and join in the question and answer period of the forum.

The Neighborhood House is located at 953 De Haro Street.

Julian Theatre Comedies

The Julian Theatre of San Francisco will present three bizarre comedies, "Home Free," by Lanford Wilson, "Margaret, Goodbye," by Robert Morse, and "The CIA Makes a Hit," by Edward Weingold, beginning Friday, Aug. 8 at the Potrero Hill Neighborhood House, 953 De Haro St.

The triple bill will be performed Fridays, Saturdays and one Sunday at 8:30 PM, Aug. 8, 9, 10, 15 and 16.

"Home Free," by the award-winning author of "The Hot L Baltimore," will be staged by Alma Becker with Jonathan Bay and Jackie Wilhelmy as a brother and sister deep into their own illusory worlds and out of touch with commonplace realities.

"Margaret, Goodbye," is a new play of the absurd, directed by Edward Weingold with Jerry T. Nova and Lewis Brown as a pair of vaudeville clowns enamored of a rubber woman. The play is the work of Robert Morse, a Ringling Bros. clown and California writer.

The evening's curtain-raiser, "The CIA Makes a Hit," is directed by the author with Arthur Perlin portraying a beleaguered under-cover agent. The latter two comedies are produced as part of the Julian Theatre's New Plays Series.

For information and reservations, phone 647-8098. Donation is $2.00.

Schedule at Stern Grove

The annual Sunday afternoon summer music festival of free concerts at Stern Grove continue in August with the following concerts:

August 3: A Bay Area jazz gala.

August 10: The faculty and students of the San Francisco Conservatory of Music will perform.

August 17: The annual pops concert with Arthur Fiedler conducting the San Francisco Symphony, which will close the series.

Blues Fest Scheduled at McLaren Park

The Third Annual San Francisco Blues Festival will come alive with nine Bay Area groups headed by Arhoolie recording star Dave Alexander, at the McLaren Park Amphitheater in San Francisco, August 23 and 24 starting at noon. The free event is sponsored by the San Francisco Art Commission's Neighborhood Arts Program.

According to Festival organizer Tom Mazzolini, "The San Francisco Bay Area is a major blues center, yet there are few commercial opportunities for the music and the musicians who are devoted to it to flourish." He adds, "Blues music is one of the few art forms to evolve in America, and it's ironic that there is so little support for it as this nation approaches its Bicentennial celebration."

The two-day Festival will present a spectrum of styles from Alexander's Texas boogie-woogie to the Nairobian Wranglers' black cowboy country-western music. Except for Alexander, who has opened the past two Festivals, all of the groups will make their first appearances at the Festival.

Adult Education Classes at Jr High

The evening adult classes at Potrero Junior High School, De Haro at 18th Sts., start early this term, Thursday, August 14.

Classes are open to all persons over the age of 18, and are free to everyone. Enrollment is continuous.

Most of the classes run from 7 to 9 in the evening, with these exceptions: Art classes last until 10 PM, and Cooking and Physical Fitness classes start at 6:30 PM.

Potrero Hill craftsmen, Henri Marie-Rose teaches art, and John Judnich teaches metal shop.

The Home Maintenance and Repair classes were added as a special means of upgrading and improving Potrero Hill.

If the community has an interest in any courses not already scheduled, the Potrero Advisory Board should be contacted and procedures to start a new class will be put into motion. Anticipated enrollment for a new class should be no less than 20 persons.

The Board is also interested in knowing if there is a desire for a short term bicycle repair class, or a class in house plants and gardening.

For further information, or suggestions, contact the Potrero Advisory Board: Babette Drefke, 282-5919, or Ed Heck, 431-3059.

Prescription Tips ... Save your Money

The next time you need a prescription, in order to save a little money, order the drug by its generic or chemical name rather than the coined brand name. The difference is in the price you pay for the drug, not in the formula.

When you visit your doctor ask him/her about this method of saving dollars and cents. The pharmacist who fills your prescription cannot make the change; however, the physician ordering the drug can.

New Arts and Crafts

Class is Planned

A special arts and crafts program, including silkscreening, clay sculpture, drawing, painting and jewelry, will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays, at the Potrero Hill Neighborhood House.

Clarence Knight is the instructor, and anyone interested call the Neighborhood House, 826-8080 for more information.

Free Lecture on T.M.

Potrero Hill residents are invited to a free introductory lecture on the Transcendental Meditation program, Tuesday, August 12, 7:30 PM, at the Potrero Branch Library, 1616 20th St. The speaker will be Michael Smith, a T.M. instructor trained personally by Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. Mr. Smith earned his B.S. and M.S. degrees at U.C.L.A. before teaching T.M.

Music in Exploratorium every Wednesday

The following is the August calendar of the Wednesday evening concerts at the Exploratorium, 3601 Lyon St., San Francisco. Time: 8 PM. Admission: 25¢.

August 6: Dick Oxtot's Hot Four, New Orleans Jazz, with trombone player Bob Mielke, clarinet and bass players for a Hot Foursome.

August 13: William Tennant, Ragtime Piano.

August 20: The Charles Moffett Family. This musically-rich family returns to the Exploratorium for a concert of solid adventures in original contemporary jazz. The members (and composers) include director Charles, percussion and trumpet; Patrick McCarthy, string bass; and Moffett's four sons -- Mondre (age 21), trumpet, Flugelhorn, baritone sax; Charles, Jr. (15) alto and tenor sax; Codaryl (13), percussion; and Charnett (8), string bass and trumpet.

August 27: Barbara Bogatin, Cellist.
